

The Citadel, Spring 2017

Old South City, New South Revival Political Leadership in Charleston, South Carolina

Joseph P. Riley, Jr., Professor of American Government and Public Policy
Mayor of Charleston, 1975-2016

Open to the Public, Seating is Limited

Questions please contact: Christina Sizemore at 843-953-0882

Jan. 12 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: Beginnings: Charleston, South Carolina, and the USA in 1975

Guests: Capers Barr & Don Fowler

Location: Bond Hall 165, The Citadel, 171 Moultrie Street

Jan. 19 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: Along the Color Line: Race Relations in Black and White

Guests: Lucille S. Whipper, William Saunders, Louis Waring, Cynthia McCottry-Smith

Location: Bond Hall 165, The Citadel, 171 Moultrie Street

Jan. 26 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: To Protect and Serve: Creating a Safe City

Guests: Gregory Mullen, Chief, Charleston Police Department

Chuck Wexler, Executive Director, Police Executive Research Forum

Edward Hethington*, Deputy Chief, Charleston Police Department

Location: Bond Hall 165, The Citadel, 171 Moultrie Street

Feb. 2 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: Foundation for Growth: Charleston Place and Economic Revitalization

Guests: Robert Rosen, Michael Bennett, Laurie Thompson

Location: Charleston Visitor Center, 375 Meeting Street

Feb. 9 – 6:45pm

Guest: David McCullough, Pulitzer Prize winning Author

Location: Mark Clark Hall, The Citadel, 171 Moultrie Street

Feb. 16 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: The Mayor's Institute: Charleston and the Remaking of the American City

Guests: Trinity Simons & Scott Parker

Location: City Art Gallery, 34 Pringleau Street

Feb. 23 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: Charleston's Second Cultural Renaissance – and Spoleto Festival, U.S.A.

Guests: Nigel Redden, Ellen Moryl, David Rawle

Location: Dock Street Theatre, 135 Church Street

March 2 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: Moving Boundaries: Charleston and Her Suburbs

Guests: Charlton deSaussure, Frances Cantwell, Howard Chapman

Location: Bond Hall 165, The Citadel, 171 Moultrie

March 9 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: Ruin and Recovery—Hurricane Hugo and the Re-Making of the Lowcountry

Guests: Barbara Williams, Barbara Vaughn, Howard Chapman, Mary Graham

Location: Bond Hall 165, The Citadel, 171 Moultrie Street

March 16 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: City Beautiful: Expanding and Enriching the Public Realm

Guests: David Rawle, Sheila Wertimer, Steve Livingston

Location: City Art Gallery*, 34 Prioleau Street

March 23 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: House and Home: Creative Approaches to Homelessness and Affordable Housing

Guests: Linda Ketner, Don Cameron, Michelle Mapp

Location: Bond Hall 165, The Citadel, 171 Moultrie Street

April 6 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: Confronting the Southern Past: The Making of the International African American Museum

Guests: Michael Boulware Moore, Professor Bernard Powers, David Rawle

Location: Maritime Center, 10 Wharfside Street

April 13 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: The Emanuel Massacre and Post-Racial America

Special Guests to be Announced

Location: Mother Emanuel AME Church, 110 Calhoun Street

April 20 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: Joe Riley's Charleston—Retrospective on Leadership and the Making of a Great American City

Guests: David Agnew, Harry Lesesne, Jean Toal (Former Chief Justice of SC Supreme Court)

Location: Bond Hall 165, The Citadel, 171 Moultrie Street

April 25 – 3:30pm-5pm

Theme: A Lifetime of Service

Speaker: Joseph P. Riley

Location: Bond Hall 165, The Citadel, 171 Moultrie Street

*People and locations have not been confirmed and are subject to change